Blue Trail - Description

The Blue Trail (blazed blue) runs from the upper parking lot on Carriage Rd. to the summit of Belknap Mountain. It follows the extension of the Carriage Road past the garage and the junctions with the Red and Green trails, descends slightly to cross a brook, then diverges right and climbs to the Belknap-Gunstock col at 0.6 mi. Here the orange-blazed Overlook Trail continues straight and the white-blazed Saddle Trail begins. The Blue Trail, now coinciding with the Belknap Range Trail, turns right and climbs, crossing a meadow with a limited outlook to Gunstock Mtn. at 0.7 mi. and a restricted view north to the Sandwich Range at 0.8 mi., and continues up through coniferous woods to where it starts to level. There is a good view towards left of Lake Winnepesaukee and Mt. Washington here. It then continues to the summit. Descending, the Blue Trail starts by the northeast (Lake) side of the fire tower.

Distances from the upper Carriage Rd. parking lot:

- to Belknap-Gunstock col (2000 ft.): 0.6 mi. (1 km.), 350 ft., 30 min.
- to Belknap Mountain summit (2382 ft.): 1.8 mi. (2.9 km.), 700 ft., 55 min.

Green Trail - Description

The Green Trail (blazed green) runs from the upper parking lot on Carriage Rd. to the summit of Belknap Mountain. It is the shortest route to the summit Belknap Mtn. but is rather steep with ledges that are slippery when wet, particularly when descending. It leaves the Carriage Road extension behind the garage and ascends on a service road, crossing a telephone line. It continues to climb, (with occasional switchbacks off the service road) passes a well (on the right, not dependable), and reaches the tower at the summit. Descending, the Green Trail begins on the southwest side of the fire tower.

Distances from the upper Carriage Rd. parking lot:

- to Belknap Mountain summit (2382 ft.): 0.8 mi. (1.3 km.), 700 ft., 40 min.
